

Derelict Seen At Honolulu

Only at rare intervals are derelict ships seen on the ocean. Rent derelicts are seen every day in this and in other cities. They are the generous, but improvident, people who believe in placing their earnings in a landlord's pocket, and not in a home for themselves. Don't drift along with the tide, deferring the time of buying until some future date. Do it now. Inquire at our office concerning bargains in homes.

Beware of Contaminated Water

Good, pure water is a source of health and vigor. Should your supply be not of the best a filter should be immediately installed.

Here is what the President of the Board of Health says:

"Recent analyses of the Nuuanu water indicate that consumers should filter and boil the same previous to human consumption."

Take heed and act early. We carry the largest assortment of standard filters in the city.

PRINCESS ALICE'S FRIENDS.

A friend in Honolulu writes me that Mrs. Nicholas Longworth has taken a great fancy to Helene Irwin and the two were constantly together on the beach at Waikiki. Mrs. Irwin gave the most elaborate function that marked the Longworths' stay in the islands and the keen eared heard the President's daughter call Miss Irwin "Helene" which marks the status of their friendship. Mrs. Longworth can do a great deal for Helene Irwin this winter if she follows her mother's plan to spend the season in the east under the chaperonage of her aunt Mrs. Robinson. Helene, herself, is not stricken with the febrile views of wide social conquests and I fancy she would be perfectly happy with the placid enjoyment of San Francisco. She is a very beautiful girl but absolutely unspoiled, with a very sweet natural manner which is probably what attracted the Princess Alice to her for that sensible young woman is not careless with her friendship, but reserves it for those who are worth while. The Irwins are expected home on the next steamer and Miss Hyde-Smith who has been their guest all summer will accompany them.—S. F. Town Talk.

SHOOTING GALLERY ALMOST A FACT

Bids are to be called for shortly for the erection of a shooting gallery for the National Guard to be built on the Ewa side of the drillshed on Hotel street. The plans for the gallery are now in the office of the Department of Public Works and the money is on hand in a local bank. This is the gallery for which Governor Carter sent on a recommendation to Washington many months ago, the recommendation coming back here finally approved after having been endorsed by fifteen high government officials and having crossed the Pacific thrice and the continent a dozen times.

TICKETS FOR MISS KROUT'S TALKS.

A good many inquiries have been made as to where tickets may be had for the series of talks to be given by Miss Mary H. KROUT at the residence of Mrs. Henry Waterhouse, 1641 Nuuanu street, beginning Saturday, October 5, from 10:30 to 11:30. The course is as follows:

Charlotte Bronte, Oct. 5.
Thackeray, Oct. 12.
The Brownings, Oct. 19.
George Eliot, Oct. 26.
Lew Wallace, Nov. 2.
The tickets, which are transferable, are $3 for the course, and may be obtained from any one of the following ladies who have kindly consented to dispose of them: Mrs. Walter Jones, Mrs. Charles Rhodes, Misses Nora Sturgeon, Charlotte Hall, Grace Cooke, Madge McCandless, Margery Freeth and Vira Damon.

THE RIVAL QUEENS.

Rehearsals for this charming play are progressing well. The story circles about the white and black queens, one the symbol of innocence and the other of black magic. The capture of Queen Rose and her rescue by her devoted page, whose wiles and arts are given full play, are leading points in the story. The despair of Prince Lion makes occasion for one of the saddest and sweetest musical bits. The final victory of truth over wrong, and the full chorus of all fairies and gnomes, huntsmen and lords, princes, queens and courts, make the grand finale.

Elegant Embroideries

An assortment of elegant embroideries with insertion to match is being shown here and admired by every one. The ribbon beading and colored trimmings for wash dresses are beautiful. Printed voile muslin, beautiful patterns and guaranteed fast colors will make up into the prettiest dresses of the season.
